

The SouthWood Community Plan

Lush green parks and a bustling Town Center. Quiet walks and vibrant cultural activities. Neighborhood schools and fun, educational events. Welcome to SouthWood, a charming and progressive community in Tallahassee, Florida. Where working from home is truly an option, and the good things in life are infinitely more accessible.

A special place created by The St. Joe Company, the SouthWood community combines the natural beauty of rolling hills, lakes, parks, and 1,000 acres of protected green space with all the things you'll love to have close to home...

like SouthWood Town Center with restaurants and an upscale nail salon, challenging Fred Couples/Gene Bates-designed golf course with club house and restaurant, walking and biking trails, schools, office space, and a community center with adult- and kid-friendly pools and tennis courts. You'll also have convenient access to historic downtown Tallahassee, the universities, and the airport. A place that welcomes both active adults and young families. At SouthWood, you'll enjoy the lifestyle you've always wanted.

Welcome to SouthWood.
